Dylan The Dancing Bear

FIRST DAY AT SCHOOL

It's Dylan's first day at his new school.
He's so excited, it's going to be sooooo cool!

"Don't forget your lunch", says mum.
"There's a big bear bun and a fresh squishy plum."

There were children playing everywhere,
it was quite a surprise for our little bear.

Then through the noise he heard his name,
it was Flip and Flop playing a game.

"It's really simple and lots of fun, write your name and show someone."

"Good morning class", said Ms Gander the Goose.
"Let's start with a game to learn each other's name."

Next to Dylan on his right was a boy wearing a mask in black and white.

His hands were fast and tricky,
he said "hello I'm a Raccoon
and my name's Ricky."

"Hello", replied Dylan,
holding his name in the air
Everyone calls me Dylan and I'm a bear.

Painting in pairs was next and Dylan's with Boris the Beaver.
Who dipped his tail in the paint pot
then splished, splashed and sploshed a lot.

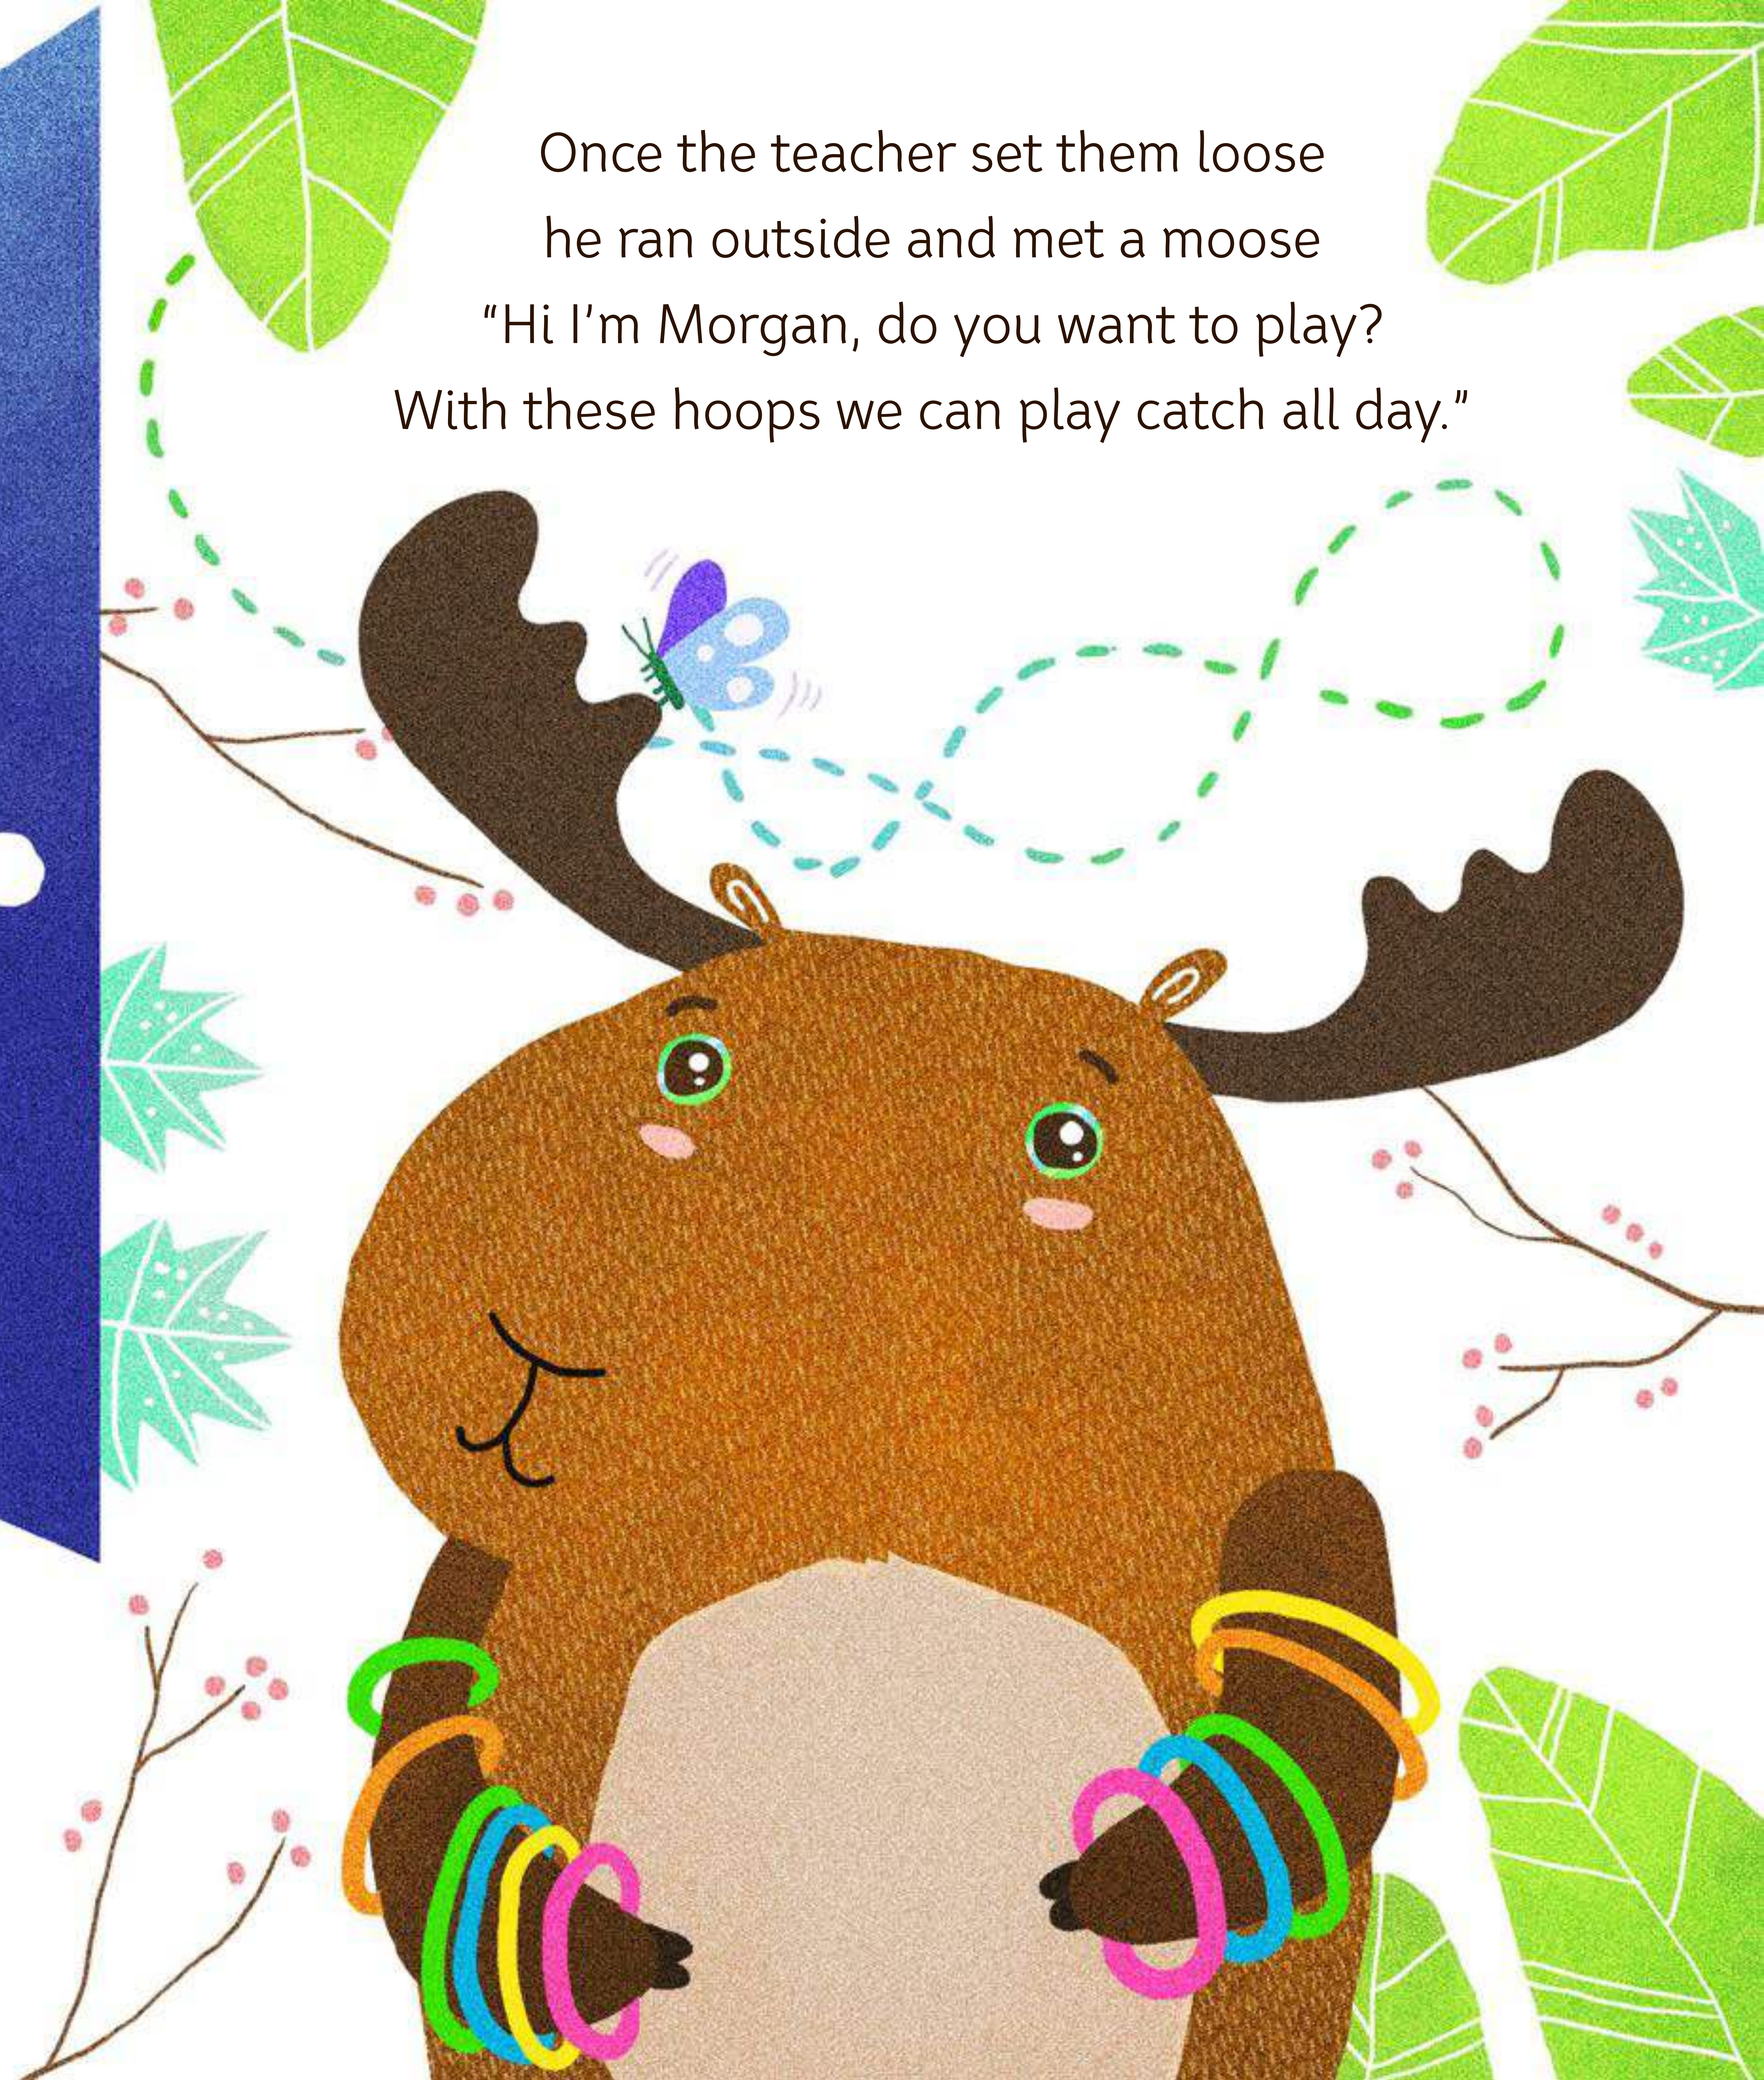

Dylan sat down on the floor
with a big brush in his paw.
He loved this messy fun
and mixed all his colors into one.

Dylan was having lots of fun,
when Ms Gander called out
"PLAYTIME EVERYONE"!

Once the teacher set them loose
he ran outside and met a moose
"Hi I'm Morgan, do you want to play?
With these hoops we can play catch all day."

Then came a yellow, a purple and blue,
one after the other
through the air they flew.

First Dylan threw a red
And Morgan caught it on his head.

Orange and green came next,
followed by pink and brown...

Soon Morgan was covered in rainbow rings and started to look like a clown.

Flip and Flop loved this game,
No two jumps were ever the same.
You hopped in the air from square to square,
it looked lots of fun to our little bear.

All around children played non-stop.
There were so many new games,
including hopscotch.

Just hop

1, 2 and 3

then turn and follow me.

But just as Dylan was ready to jump,
he got in a muddle and fell in a puddle.

So he picked himself up
and shook himself down,
he steadied his feet and wiggled around.

Dylan's fall is quite a blow,
but he knew he could do it,
if he gave it a go.

The whole school started to cheer him along singing his name in one big song.

Dylan bravely jumped up in the air and happily hopped from square to square.

With every jump the cheers grew louder
his forest friends couldn't have been any prouder ...

Dylan was so happy, he started to giggle
And soon he was dancing his best bear wiggle.

He rocked and he rolled,
and jitterbug dived,
the children all boggied,
they twisted and jived.

The whole school went wild and danced with him.
He looked so happy with his big bear grin.

He gave it his best from head to toe and you can do it, if you give it a go.
