Dylan The Dancing Bear

MOVES HOUSE

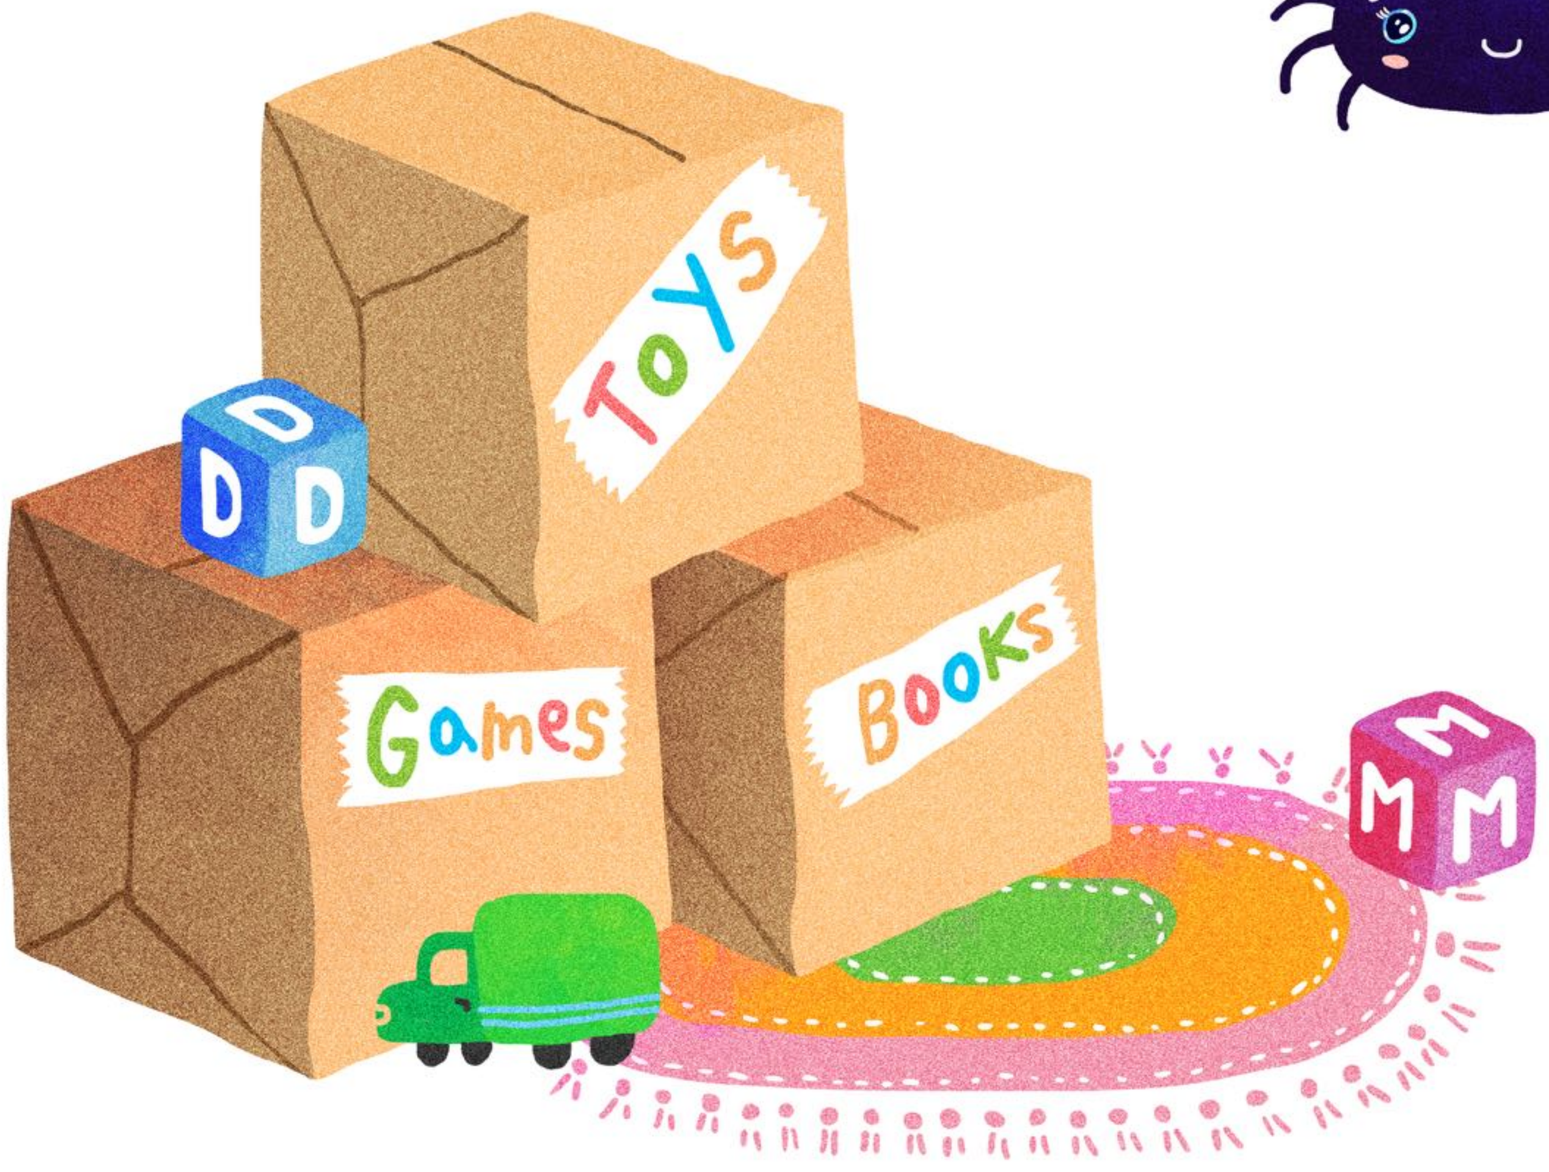
Dylan's moving house today and Sally the spider comes round to play.



"Don't be sad little bear,
you can make friends anywhere."

"Hurry up Dylan, don't be so slow, it's ten o'clock and time to go!"

"Can you find my glasses?" asks Dad.

As they drive along,
they get a turning wrong...

and then they were lost as roads crisscrossed.

Finally dad found his way
and as soon as he opened the door...

Dylan ran in and began to explore

Is this my room?

Or is it here?

Dylan searches everywhere.

DYLAN'S ROOM

When he thinks he can look no more,
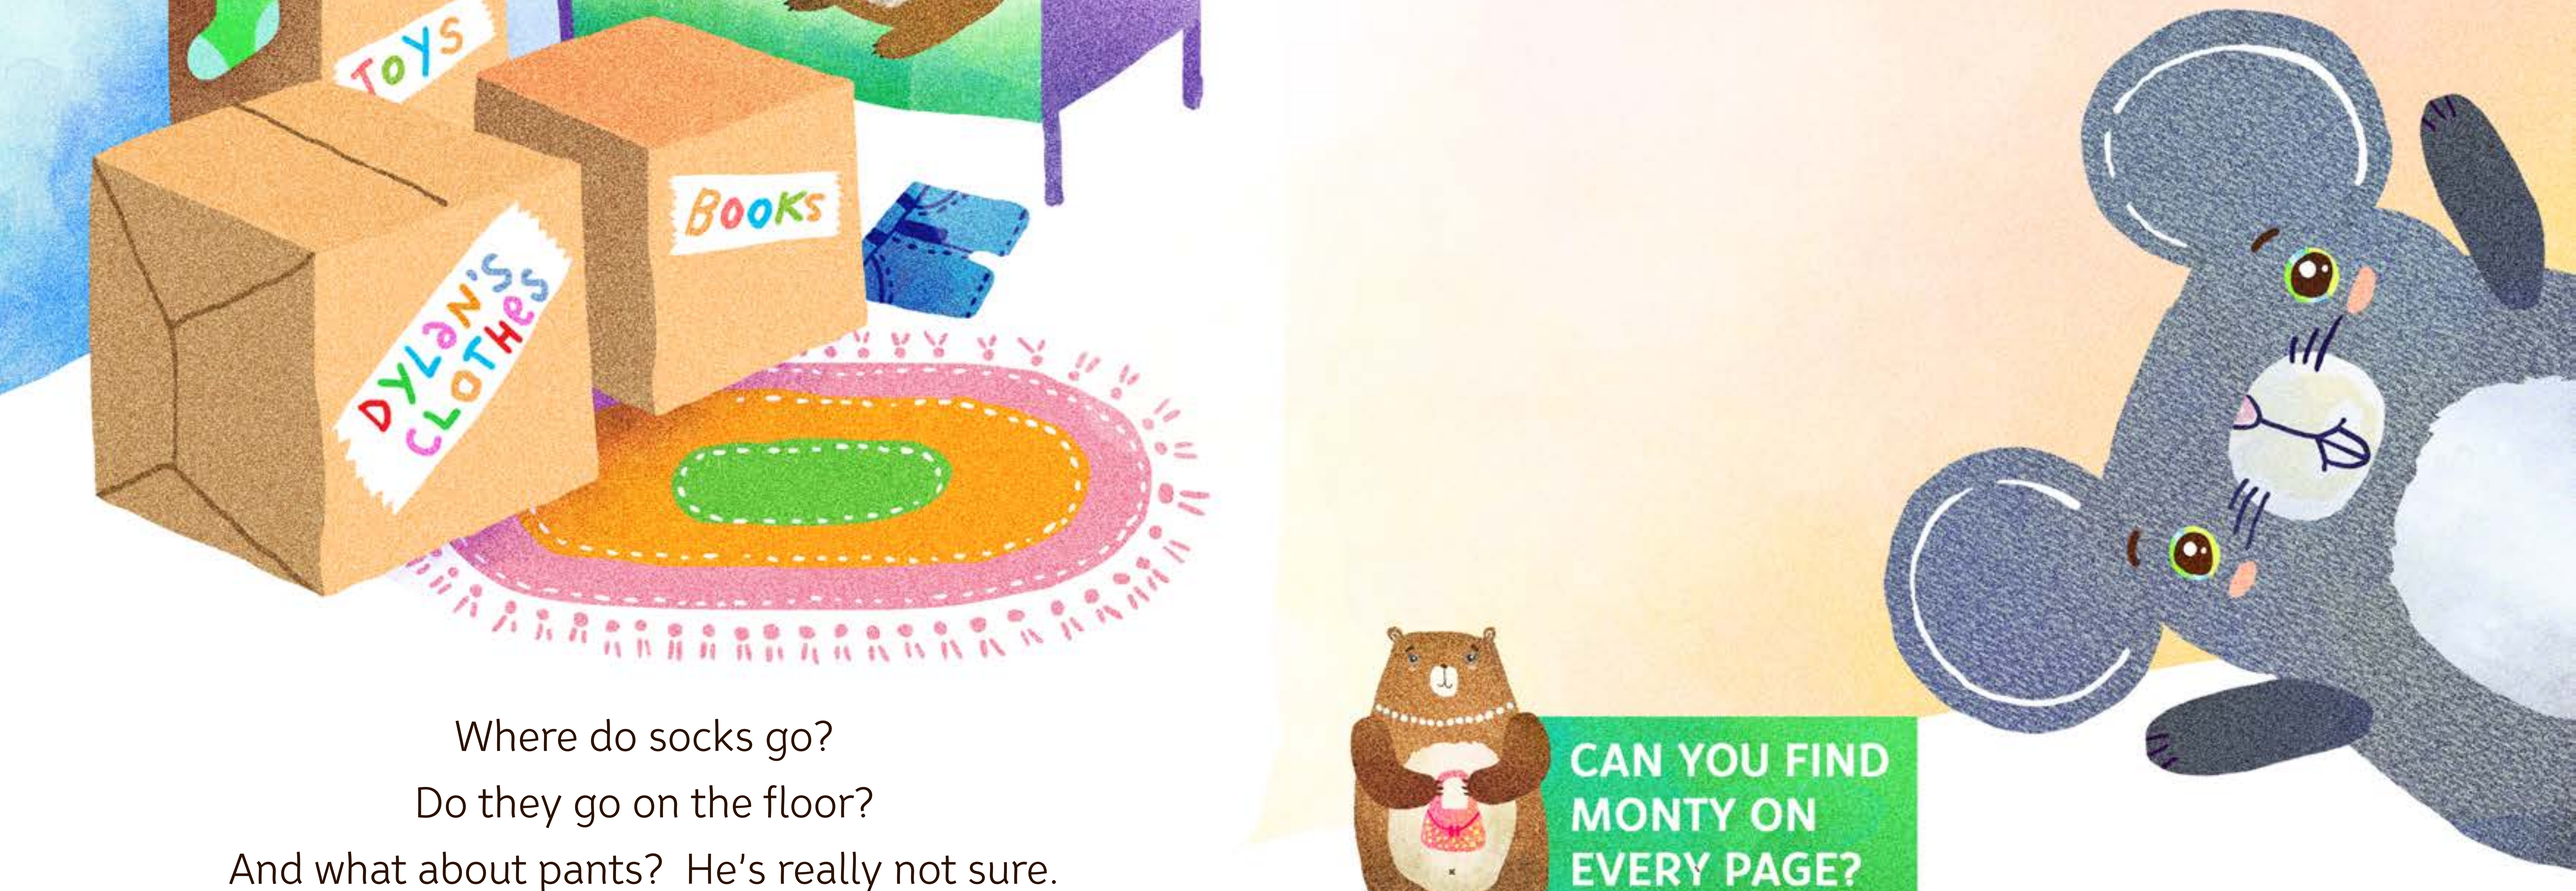
he finds his name on the ORANGE door!!

Where do socks go?
Do they go on the floor?
And what about pants? He's really not sure.

Dylan stops, pricks up his ears.
What's that squeaky noise he hears?

"Umm … hello," whispers a little voice.
"I'm Monty, Monty the Mouse."

"Hello," says Dylan. "Don't be afraid.
I might be big and hairy but I'm not very scary."



CAN YOU FIND MONTY ON EVERY PAGE?

It's Dylan's first night and there's a bright new moon
but it's so dark and quiet in his bedroom.
He hears a flap and a tippety-tap,
from under the covers he shouts

WHO'S THAT?

"Twit-twoo, Twit-twoo I'm Olly the owl, nice to meet you."
From under the sheet Dylan takes a peek;
it's a big eyed owl with a smiley beak.
"Hello, I'm Dylan and this is Monty."

The sun is shining overhead,
so Dylan
bounces out of bed.

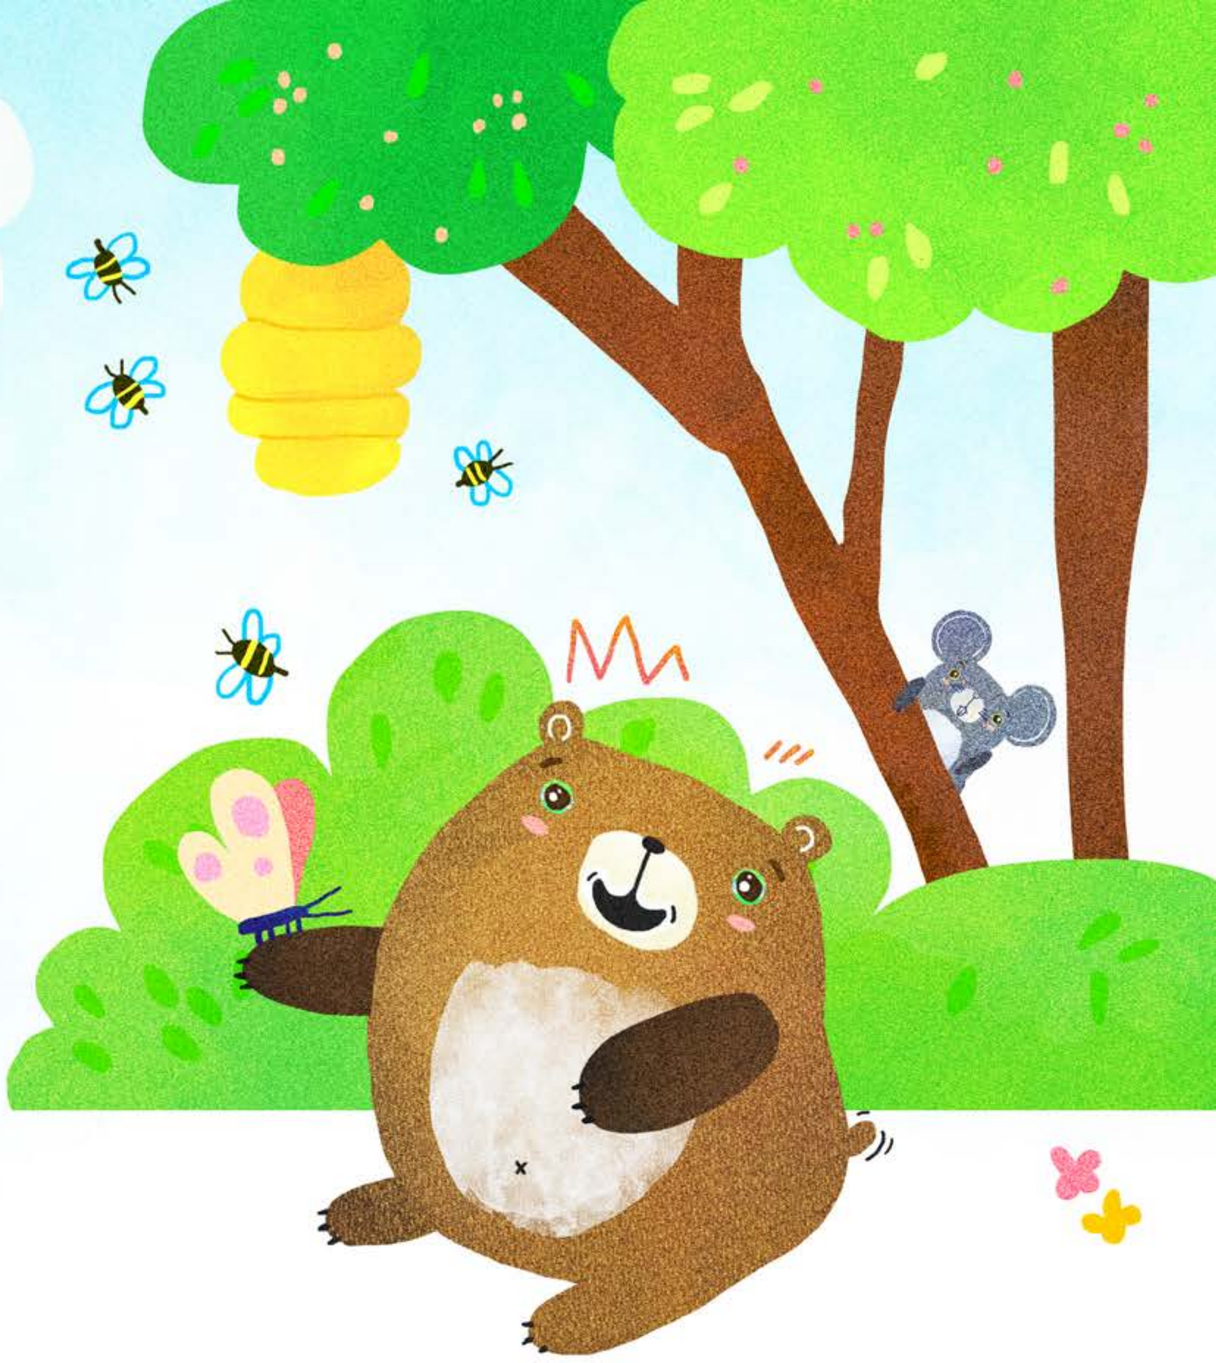
"Morning mum, can we go out and play?"
"I'm sorry Dylan but not today."

I know what, Dylan says,
I'll go and see if dad is free.



Dylan starts to explore and discover,
an amazing new world of sound and colour.

Creepy-bugs crawl on the ground and bumble bees buzz all around.
Butterflies skip through the air and dance around our friendly bear.

Then from behind he hears a flip and a flop
and sees two bouncing bunnies that just won't stop.

"Hi I'm Flip and this is Flop.
Do you want to play?
We can hop all day."

"Just count
1, 2 and 3
then hop with Flop and me."

He swings his arms and spins around,
and soon starts dancing to the forest sound

First Dylan flips and then he flops.
But when it's time to hop... he just stops.

Flip and Flop watch with glee, completely amazed with what they see.

"Keep going!" they scream.
"Dylan don't stop.
We'll follow you and your hippity hop."

So they hip and they hop,
they flip and they flop,
they wiggle and waggle
and boogie a lot.

The whole forest follows
and boogies along,
because everyone can dance,
there's no right or wrong.
